

Exploring Sign Language

American Sign Language is a language that uses hand movements to express words. Sign language allows a person to communicate by using gestures.

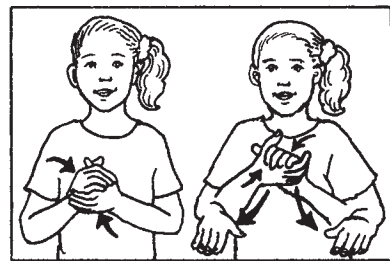

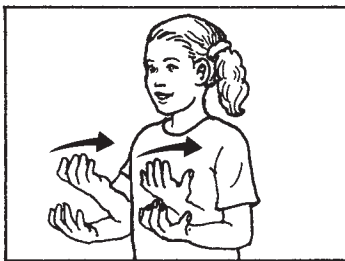

Directions: Taking turns with a partner, use sign language to make the sentences.

We are friends.

I love God.

I want peace.

Can you guess the meaning of this sentence? Write the sentence on the line.

