

Following God's Instructions

Directions: Rate the choices for each situation from 1 to 3, with 1 as the best choice. Then tell which of God's commandments applies and explain your answer.

1. You are jealous of someone who is always bragging about how many computer games or electronic toys he has. One day he comes to school with a new cell phone and is showing it off. Later you see the phone on the ground in the park. What do you do?

- _____ Leave it there and do nothing.
- _____ Return it.
- _____ Show it to your friends and ask them what to do.

Explain your answer. _____

2. Your parents want you to visit your grandmother on Saturday. You have been invited to go out with some friends. You know that if you tell your parents that you have homework, they will let you stay home. What do you do?

- _____ Tell your friends you can't go with them and visit your grandmother.
- _____ Say you have homework and go out with your friends.
- _____ Ask your parents if you can go out with your friends.

Explain your answer. _____

3. Someone stole some money from the class collection for a charity. Some of your friends are saying that a boy who doesn't usually have a lot of money for class activities or donations took the money. What do you do?

- _____ Tell your friends it isn't right to accuse someone without proof.
- _____ Tell your friends it isn't right to accuse someone without proof and then make an effort to be especially nice to the accused boy.
- _____ Say nothing because you want to keep your friends.

Explain your answer. _____
