Gotta Have It?

Coveting something isn't about the thing itself. It's about why and how much you want it.

Directions: For each object listed below, complete the sentences, one from the point of a view of a covetous person, and one from the point of view of a detached person. An example is given.

Example: car

Covetous: I want a black sports car because it will make me feel powerful.

Detached: I drive a small sedan because it gets me where I need to go.

1. clothes

Covetous: I want _____ because it/they _____.

Detached: I wear _____ because it/they _____.

2. hi-tech gadget

Covetous: I want a _____ because it _____.

Detached: I use a _____ because it _____.

3. game or pastime

Covetous: I want a _____ because it _____.

Detached: I have a _____ because it _____.

4. house

Covetous: I want a _____ because it _____.

Detached: I live in a _____ because it _____.

Place a check mark by one of the sentences that sounds like the real you. What might God have to say to you about this? Listen quietly for a moment, and then write what you hear.
